Dancing with the Dogs Contest -- Registration and Guidelines

Does your Shih Tzu like to Salsa-- Retriever want to Rumba-- Chihuahua like a good Cha-Cha-- Mixed breed go for a creative "freestyle"? How about a Walzing Weimaraner, Swinging Scottie or Jitterbugging Boxer? Does your Terrier Tango or Doodle Dog Disco?

Canine freestyle is a combination of training (heel, sit, down, back-up) along with safe, natural tricks like bow, spins and twirls. Be creative by putting together an easy, fun-- 2-3 minute routine that you and your dog can enjoy!

Entering PWF's Dancing with the Dogs Contest is easy. Dancing will begin at about 2:00. Each routine will last no-more than 2-3 minutes and judged on creativity and skill.

This is a fun opportunity to teach and show off your doggy's FEATS while moving your FEET! It emphasizes a trusting relationship, while having fun!

You do not need to be a dancer to enter. There is no age requirement, but children under 16 require adult supervision. It is about the team having a good time and entertaining for a good cause New England Pet Partners.
Winner $50 Gift Card + 2, $25 Runner-Up prizes.

Guidelines are easy: Fill out the registration form below. Bring it with you. You CAN enter on 10/22 too. There is no additional entry fee if are attending the Pet Wellness Festival. Entry fee for contest only: $5.00. Your routine should be no longer than 2-3 minutes, fun and safe. Bring your music or it will be supplied. Judging will begin at 2:00 with the winner receiving a gift certificate and surprise.

PWF guidelines for safety apply to Dancing with the Dogs. No dogs in heat. Dogs must be healthy, providing latest wellness check form. Dogs should be on leash until competing. Children under 16 need to be supervised by an adult. Contestants should enter at the registration table.
